

Unencrypted email is not a secure form of communication. There is some risk that any individually identifiable health information and other sensitive or confidential information that may be contained in such email may be misdirected, disclosed to or intercepted by unauthorized third parties. However, you may consent to receive email from us regarding your treatment. We will use the minimum necessary amount of protected health information in any communication. Our first email to you will verify the email address you provide.

Please initial one of the following:

- 4) I Consent to and accept the risk in receiving information via email. I understand I can withdraw my consent at any time. My email address is _____ Initial: _____

- 5) I consent only to receiving appointment reminders vial email or text. I understand I can with draw my consent at any time. My email is _____ Initial: _____

- 6) I do not consent to receiving any information via email. I understand I can change my mind and provide consent later. (please initial) _____

The first part of the report is devoted to a general survey of the work done during the past year. This includes a brief history of the department and a list of the projects which have been carried out.
The second part of the report is devoted to a detailed description of the work done on the project of the synthesis of new polymers.
This includes a description of the experimental methods used and the results obtained. The third part of the report is devoted to the work done on the project of the synthesis of new polymers.
This includes a description of the experimental methods used and the results obtained.

The first part of the report is devoted to a general survey of the work done during the past year. This includes a brief history of the department and a list of the projects which have been carried out.
The second part of the report is devoted to a detailed description of the work done on the project of the synthesis of new polymers.
This includes a description of the experimental methods used and the results obtained. The third part of the report is devoted to the work done on the project of the synthesis of new polymers.
This includes a description of the experimental methods used and the results obtained.